

Our School Values:

CURIOSITY

At Glenroy Central Primary we show curiosity by:

- Asking lots of questions
- Being interested and engaged in learning new things
- Using our thinking skills to be creative and critical

COLLABORATION

At Glenroy Central Primary we show collaboration by:

- Getting along and working well with others
- Using our communication skills in a positive way
- Learning from each other

CITIZENSHIP

At Glenroy Central Primary we show that we are good citizens by:

- Showing respect for ourselves and others
- Understanding others people's point of view
- Being interested in world issues and being a problem-solver

CHARACTER

At Glenroy Central Primary we show character by:

- Using a growth mindset and persisting even when it gets hard
- Being resilient and accepting feedback to improve
- Showing responsibility and self-regulating our emotions

CARING

At Glenroy Central Primary we show caring by:

- Being kind to each other
- Showing compassion, empathy and concern for others
- Including everyone in learning and play

